in and in the most aggressive and most insulting manner. Mr. Rooseveit himself has had a mild and limited sample of its attitude in the declaration just published, and which he has felt bound to disavow.

"The Hely See, after the unfortunate Fairbanks incident, had every reason to fear that Mr. Roosevelt unwittingly and in perfect good faith might be led into showing open sympathy and friendship for this hostile centre of aggression against the Catholic world. Consequently, when Mr. Roosevelt applied indirectly and confidentially for an audience with His Holiness the Pope, the wish was courteously expressed that he would avoid being dragged into the objectionable position of appearing publicly to support the offensive campaign against the Pope in his own residence.

"Mr. Roosevelt replied, refusing all conditions or agreements, which allowed the nossibility of his accom-

A Great Triumph.

Rome, April 5.—Before leaving Roma to-night Ex-President Roosevelt had reason to believe that a great triumph was his because both the attitude of the Vatican towards him and the statement of the Methodiat, which he had condemned, were repudiated by the leading adherents of those two institutions.

Abbot Lawrence Janssens, one of the Methodiat, chick he leading adherents of those two institutions.

Abbot Lawrence Janssens, one of the most learned benedictines, and secretary of the Congregation of the Atfairs of Religion, called on Mr. Roosevelt this evening, and not finding him left his card, on which he wrote in French that he desired to congratulate him for the constant support given to his order and the Catholic Church in general in America during Mr. Roosevelt's glorious career as President, which he hoped would scon be resumed.

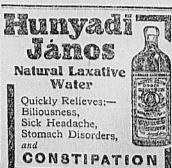

Contemporaneously, Mr. Roosevelt received letters from relatives of high Relates and Pardinals, condemning what they stydled 'the personal attitude of Cardinal Merry Del Val, for which neither the Pope nor the Catholic Church was responsible"

Mr. Roosevelt received the following letter from Dr. Walling Clark, bead of the Methodist organization in Italy:

"When all is said and done it was a question of common courtesy. The Holy See did not impose upon Mr. Roosevelt, as has been wrongly assert. ed, the condition of net approaching Methodists or other non-Catholic religious bodies in Rome. There are several non-Catholic centres in the city which do not behave in a bitterly hostile and offensive manner toward the Pope and towards everything that its floilines and all Catholics hold most dear.

The Methodist centre systematically joins hands with the worst and most anti-clerical and anti-papal elements in the city, and does so notoriously and in the most aggressive and most insulting manner.
